Acting "Academy"

Acting 6th through 8th grades: Tuesdays 3:30 to 4:25 pm

This class is designed to be a first acting class while introducing students to more advanced ideas and techniques. Creativity, improvisation, audition techniques, public speaking, stage voice and movement, monologue and scene study, and accents are all taught in this course, as well as focus on actor preparation, creating the character, and advanced vocal and movement work. The class will work toward a presentation project at years end. All presentation in class will contain subject matter and language that would be considered G or PG rated.

Beginning Acting 2nd - 5th grade: Tuesdays 4:30-5:15 pm

This is a class we suggest for kids who are interest in the exploration of acting. We strive to help your child build their self-confidence and develop a strong sense of self. Acting Exercises that encourage the confronting of fear and self-doubt will be the focus of the class. By this students will develop and discover their creativity. The exercises include; improvisation, public speaking, voice and movement, monologue and scene study, and accents. The class will work toward a presentation project at year's end. Class unity and the acceptance of each other's freedom of creative expression are strongly encouraged; dissention of any kind is not tolerated. This is a nurturing artistic environment where one who is focused and dedicated can thrive. All presentation in class will contain subject matter and language that would be considered G or PG rated.

Advanced Acting 9th to College age: Mondays 5:30 – 6:25 pm

Advanced Acting offers an extremely challenging and cutting edge curriculum. The class covers a vast array of acting styles and philosophies. The classes encourage exploration of Stanislavski, Meisner, and Hagen Exercises. Scene study, audition technique, public speaking, accents, voice and movement, improvisation, monologue work, and performance art. This program is designed to give our students who are interested an idea of the requirements and techniques they will need to compete and properly prepare for college auditions and the world of professional acting. The program also presents opportunities to audition for Actors Point Theatre Company's main-stage productions be candidates to participate in their intern programs. Discipline and respect for the art of theatre and film is instilled in each student. Class unity and the acceptance of each other's freedom of creative expression are strongly encouraged; dissention of any kind is not tolerated. This is a nurturing artistic environment where one who is focused and dedicated can thrive. All presentation in class will contain subject matter and language that would be considered G or PG rated.
