

Sumner PLAYS Information and Registration Packet

ACT. FAST!
One Day. Musical Theatre. Nine Hours.

Sumner County is blessed to have students recognized for their athletic and educational abilities on an annual basis, but we are also blessed with many students who have developed a love for the performing arts, however, to much less fanfare and celebration.

The SUMNER PLAYS Student Musical Theatre Challenge was created to recognize and celebrate the talents of these students.

Last September almost 60 students from across Sumner County participated in the inaugural SUMNER PLAYS Student Theatre One-Act Challenge, and another 80 participated in the SUMNER PLAYS Student Theatre Musical Production Challenge held in January. These students spent the day working with each other, mentored by theatre professionals, to produce a one-act play or musical production which was performed for a live audience later that evening.

On February 3, 2018, the SUMNER PLAYS Student Musical Theatre Challenge will be held. Students participating in this event will be immersed in a completely fabulous, completely fun day of acting, rehearsing and performing. This event will begin at 9:30 am with students randomly chosen to become part of a team that will be assigned a one-act play that they will be tasked with memorizing, rehearsing and performing during the Performance Showcase beginning at 6:30 pm that same evening.

Each team will be led by a mentor; an actor/actress, director, choreographer and/or coach with professional theater experience who will assist the team with casting, staging, and rehearsing their assigned piece in preparation for their live performance.

Act. Fast! And join us on February 3rd for another great SUMNER PLAYS Student Musical Theatre Challenge event.
